Henry Jarvis (ca 1820-1859) (L2)

This research covers the life of Henry Jarvis or Jervis, thought to be a direct ancestor of Louise. There are relatively few citations for him as his life spanned just two censuses; the 1841 census offers limited information and a rounded-down age. The findings are tentative and any concerns are noted as they arise. The notes are in date order, although in research they were found in the traditional way by working back from his son, Henry.

Henry was baptised at Maer in 1819, the son of Thomas and Anne Jervis, the address Maerway Lane; his father was a cordwainer.

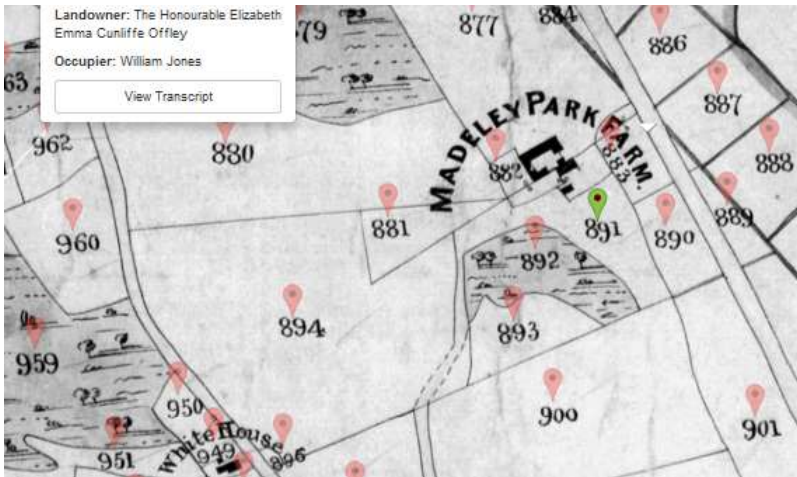

He was baptised with his brother George; there is no indication in the entry that they were twins, nor that they were from separate births – often a birthdate is included where two siblings are baptised together. The document George&Mary.docx charts George’s life and the citations found for George suggest he was an elder brother, born around 1816.

At the time of the 1841 census Henry would be around 22 years old and if the enumerator followed instructions he would be recorded as age 20. A search on Findmypast for any Henry J*rv* born 1811-1821 finds just two in Shropshire and Staffordshire:

- Henry Jarvis, MS (Male Servant), 25 at Haughmond Demesne, Atcham, Shropshire
- Henry Jarves, MS, 20 at Park Farm, Madeley, Newcastle-under-Lyme, Staffordshire

The second is the better match on age and place. The farmer he worked for was William Jones, age 55 (possibly 53) who was not born in Staffs (Madeley borders Cheshire and Shropshire). William's wife was named Martha and a marriage of William Jones to Martha Harris at Madeley 10 Jul 1836 could be the same man. The tithe record, 26 Aug 1839, shows William was a tenant and the farm comprised 333 acres including uncultivated bog.

The location of Madeley Park Farm is shown on the map above: it is in the southern end of Madeley parish and north east of Maer Heath.

Woore is around 9 miles WSW of Newcastle under Lyme and a similar distance from Stoke. Woore was originally a township of Mucklestone parish that lay in Shropshire; its church was built in 1830-31 to serve the five Shropshire townships of Mucklestone.<sup>2</sup>

The marriage gives the parents' names: Thomas Jervis and Samuel Millington, a farmer and labourer respectively.

Henry's elder brother George had also moved to Woore by 1843, having previously lived in Wolstanton, and he was a witness to the marriage:

This Marriage was solemnized between us: Henry Jervis Ann Millington in the Presence of us: George Jervis Elizabeth Shelmadine

The second witness to Henry's marriage has an unusual name: Elizabeth Shelmadine. A check of the 1851 census found a Thomas and Elizabeth Shelmadine were enumerated immediately prior to George Jervis and his wife in Aston: they lived near to each other and probably were neighbours. The marriage of Thomas Shelmadine to Elizabeth Platt took place at Mucklestone 29 Jan 1833: there is no obvious familial link between Elizabeth and Henry or Ann. It is possible that Henry was living with his brother or perhaps boarding with the Shelma(r)dines when he married and Elizabeth was roped in as a witness.

Ten weeks after their marriage Henry and Ann baptised twin sons Thomas and Allen Jervis at Mucklestone, on the last day of 1843. The family remained in Aston:

The birth registrations were registered as Jarvis in the last quarter of 1843, at Market Drayton:

Name:	Mother's Maiden Surname:

JARVIS, THOMAS	MILLINGTON
GRO Reference: 1843 D Quarter in THE MARKET DRAYTON UNION Volume 18 Page 121

The GRO Index has 'Alan', an unusual forename which other research suggests may be from an earlier member of Henry's family: the spelling was usually Allen, as it appears in the parish register. Allen's death was registered the following quarter in Market Drayton.

Within a few months of his sons' births and the loss of Allen, Henry was imprisoned for 4 months on a charge of larceny – the trial was on 7 March 1844 in Staffordshire and his age was recorded as 25.<sup>3</sup> A list of records relating to his imprisonment is at the end.

The column 'Degree of Instruction' has been completed as 'N' – I think this refers to level of education, which is set to Imp(erfect) for most entries on the page, 'N' probably = none.

Following his release from prison, the next sighting of Henry and Ann is in the baptism register of Wolstanton, Staffordshire. Their first daughter Ann was baptised here on 29 Dec 1846. They were living at Knutton Heath and Henry was working as a labourer.

The surname was recorded as Jarvis but the birth registration was in the name Jervis; as expected the mother was formerly named Millington.<sup>5</sup>

Their fourth and final child was a son named Henry whose birth was registered in Wolstanton and Burslem in 1848:

His baptism record has not been found (Staffordshire baptism set, Findmypast, 1847-1849).

The following newspaper report describes two thefts by Henry, the first in Madeley – an area he knew from his early working days - the second in Wolstanton where he was probably living. Desperate measures?

Staffordshire Advertiser 04 January 1851 was sentenced to six months' imprisonment.

FRIDAY.

Before F. TWEMLOW, Esq., Chairman.

HENRY JERVIS, who was convicted on the previous day of breaking into a butcher's shop, at Madeley, and stealing 4lbs. of beef, was again arraigned on a charge of stealing two fowls, the property of John Colelough, at Wolstanton.—Mr. KENEALY conducted the prosecution, and to prove the charge, called the prosecutor, who deposed that he lost two fowls and a rabbit from his premises on the night of the 6th of August, which had been previously marked by a man named Sumner. On the 24th December, the fowls were discovered at the house of the prisoner's brother, where the prisoner had taken them in August last, stating that if he would take care of them, he should have one of the fowls for his trouble. The fowls were identified by Sumner, and also by the prosecutor.—The jury returned a verdict of guilty; after which a previous conviction in 1844 was proved against the prisoner by Mr. Chidley, and he was sentenced to be transported for seven years.

It seems likely that the prisoner's brother, referred to above, was George Jervis, who was around three years older than Henry. George was a witness to Henry's marriage and their both living in Wolstanton and Woore suggests they were close.

Henry was convicted at the Quarter Sessions in Stafford, 30 Dec 1850 and sentenced to 7 years transportation:

WHEREAS at this present Sessions Henry Jervis is and stands convicted of Larceny after a previous conviction of Felony
 IT IS THEREUPON ORDERED AND ADJUDGED by this Court, that the above-named Convict be Transported beyond the Seas to such place as Her Majesty, by the advice of her Privy Council, shall think fit to direct and appoint, for the Term of Seven years.

At the end is a summary of his prison term and some further documents, one of which includes his height, stature, eye colour etc.

Henry was serving his prison sentence in 1851, in All Saints, Wakefield, Yorkshire;<sup>8</sup> he was 30, married, an engineer (mechanical) born Newcastle under Lyme. His occupation - 'engineer (mechanical)' - is a good fit to 'engineman', the occupation recorded when his son Henry married in 1875.

The 1851 census shows Ann Jervis and three children in Knutton village, Wolstanton. They had two lodgers, Elizabeth Young, a silk throwster and her young son 'Henery'. There is a corresponding baptism at Watford of Henry son of Elizabeth Young, 24 Jan 1850 (but how she ended up in Wolstanton is a mystery).

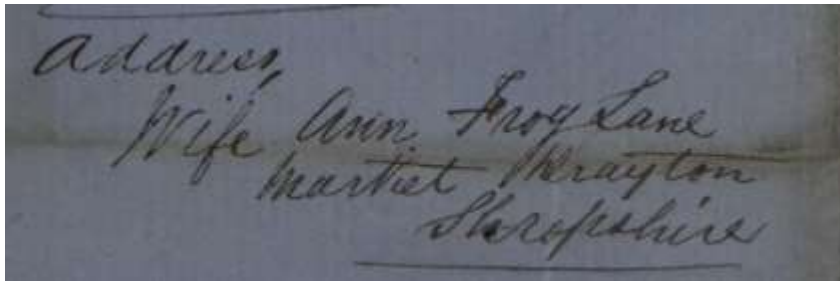

Ann Jervis	Head	Mar	28	Household Duties	Cheshire	Knutton
Thomas do	Son	8		Scholar	Staffordshire	Knutton
Ann do	Daughter		5		100	Knutton
Henry do	Son	3			100	100
Elizabeth Young	Boarder	25		Silk Throwster	Middlesex	Watford
Henry do	Son	1			Do	Do

As to their father's transportation, Findmypast has transcriptions and original images from prison records held at The National Archives. One of the items gives a summary which notes that, after short stay in Stafford Prison, Henry was in Wakefield Prison until 8 Mar 1852 and then was transferred to Portland Prison, Dorset, 9 Mar 1852. This document includes his wife's address and reference to his other next of kin, an un-named brother in 'Mary Aye' – presumably Maer Way:

Wife resides at Knutton Heath
 Mother resides at Mary Aye
 Staffordshire

A later address for his wife appears on the reverse:

<sup>8</sup> Wakefield Prison opened in 1594 (https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/HM\_Prison\_Wakefield)

There is no evidence that Henry was actually transported. The entries for Henry cease in 1852 at which point he was in Portland Prison, Dorset, presumably waiting to travel to Australia with several years of his sentence to serve. The 1853 Penal Servitude act change this:

After the 1853 Penal Servitude act, only long-term transportation was retained and transportation was finally abolished after the Penal Servitude act of 1857...

Penal servitude means 'Serving a sentence that is meant to punish the prisoner'. Penal Servitude was a term of imprisonment that usually included hard labour and was served in this country. This gradually replaced transportation following the 1853 and 1857 Penal Servitude Acts.

The sentence for penal servitude could range from 3 years to life; it was for those convicts who would have been transported for less than 14 years....

Sentences of 7 years transportation or less were substituted by penal servitude for 4 years<sup>9</sup>

Penal servitude was a term of imprisonment at hard labour first introduced by the 1853 and 1857 Penal Servitude Acts as a replacement for transportation. It gave judges the discretion to sentence anyone who might otherwise have been transported for less than 14 years to penal servitude. This normally meant labour in a convict prison.<sup>10</sup>

Presumably as a consequence of the Penal Servitude Act, the HO8 record for Henry dated 30 Dec 1850 is annotated:

It seems likely Henry was released after serving under four years of his sentence and presumably returned to his home.

The 1861 census shows his wife Ann was a widow in Drayton. Assuming Henry died between his release and the 1861 census this burial at Drayton in 1859 fits in terms of timing, location and age – in practice he would be 40 or 41:

<sup>9</sup> <http://vcp.e2bn.org/justice/page11360-types-of-punishment-transportation-and-penal-servitude.html>

This burial/death is the only option found to date.

His death left his wife with three children to support, ages from 11 to 16. The 1861 census finds Ann at the address given on her husband's prison records, Frog Lane, Drayton. She was taking in laundry and had two boarders to supplement her income.

A William Maddocks birth was registered in the last quarter of 1860, an illegitimate birth:

Name: MADDOCKS, WILLIAM
Mother's Maiden Surname: -
 GRO Reference: 1860 D Quarter in MARKET DRAYTON Volume 06A Page 651

A baptism at Drayton the following year, 7 Apr 1861, may be the same child:

Henry and Ann's two eldest children, Thomas and Anne, were not at home in 1861. The following entry from Shropshire Street, Drayton may be Thomas:

William W. Williams	Head	Widow	50	Solider	Kent Deptford
Joseph E. L.	Brother	Widow	39	Solider	Staffordshire
Sarah Waddington	Servant	Widow	37	Cook (Domestic)	Salop Chesardine
Charlotte Crump	Servant	Widow	36	Housemaid	Staffordshire
Thomas Jervis	Servant	Widow	17	Footman	Salop Muckleston

His age is correct and his birthplace, Muckleston, is too: Woore was a chapelry of Muckleston parish.

As to his sister Ann, an Ann Jervis, age 15, housemaid working for Edward Ryley, a miller, Victoria Mill, Drayton may be her. Her birthplace was recorded as 'Drayton'.

A marriage at Drayton in 1867 may be her; her father was Henry Jervis, labourer:

This Marriage was solemnized between us, Joseph Moore			in the Presence of us, Ann Jones			Joseph Farnell X her Mark

The witnesses were Ann Jones and Joseph Farnell. Henry worked for a William Jones in 1841 (but it is a common name). Four years after the wedding, in 1871, Joseph Farnell, 29, was a bricklayers labourer living with his parents, Frog Lane, Drayton, in the next-but-one household to Ann Jervis; it is possible he was a neighbour and friend.

Joseph and Ann Moore were also living on Frog Lane in 1871 and had two small daughters (GRO registrations confirm the mother was formerly named Jervis). Ann was a little older than 23, the age recorded:

Joseph Moore	Head	Man	28	Blacksmith	Salop: Edgmond
Ann J.	Wife	Man	23		Drayton

Mary S. J.	Daughter		3 months		Drayton
William Wade	Lodger	Man	23	Blacksmith	Drayton

The lodger, William Wade, age 23 is a match to the son of John Wade and Elizabeth Millington born in 1848; he was living with his widowed mother in Drayton in 1881, age 32, a blacksmith. Millington.docx looks at Ann Millington, wife of Henry.

Four years later Ann's widowed mother married, also at Drayton:

1871. Marriage solemnized at the parish Church in the parish of Drayton in Wales in the County of Salop
No.	When Married.	Name and Surname.	Age.	Condition.	Rank or Profession.	Residence at the time of Marriage.	Father's Name and Surname.	Rank or Profession of Father.

Married in the parish Church according to the Rites and Ceremonies of the Established Church, by George Chute or after Banns by me.
This Marriage was solemnized between us, Knock Hendley			in the Presence of us, John Edwards X her Mark			Ann Edwards

A few months prior to marrying in 1871 Ann was living at Frog Lane next door to the Police Station. In the next household were John and Ann Edwards, presumably the marriage witnesses:

Ann Jarvis	Head	W	43	Housekeeper	Cheshire; Audlem
William Maddox	Nursery		10	Scholar	Salop; Market Drayton
Martha Jones	Do		10	Do	Do; Do
Elozabeth Jones	Do		7	Do	Do; Do
Henry Haspell	Do		2	Do	Do; Do
John Edwards	Head	Mar	40	Cordwainer	Do; Do

In the name household as Ann Jarvis were four children, relationship to Ann being 'Nursery'. Perhaps she ran a dame school. William Maddox, 10, seems likely to be the same child as was living with her 1861.

Enoch and Ann were at Sunhill Road, Little Drayton, in 1881. Their birthplaces have been swapped:

Enoch Hendley	Head	Mar	53	General Labourer	Warrley, Staffordshire
Ann	wife	Mar	31		Audlem, Cheshire
Total of Males and Females...			10	15	Wellington, Salop

Following their marriage, in 1891 Enoch and Ann were living at Shrewsbury Rd, Little Drayton. Ann's birthplace of Audlem, Cheshire, is consistent with earlier census details although her age had reduced a little:

Enoch Hendley	Head	M	66	General Labourer	11 th Stanton, Staffs
Ann	wife	M	64		Cheshire; Audlem

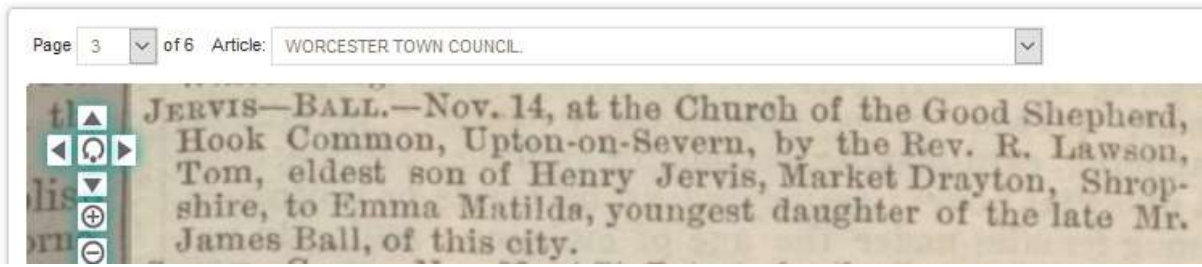

Ann died the year after the census and was buried at Little Drayton:

Ann's earlier life: see Millington.docx

Henry and Ann's eldest son Thomas Jervis (TM)

The following entry may refer to Henry's eldest son Thomas who was born in 1843:

In 1881 the couple were living at 9 Kensington Street, Hyde, Stockport, Cheshire with their four children.

Thomas Jervis	Head	Mar	37	Gardener Don	Worcestershire	Whore
Emma M Jervis	Wife	Mar	35	Home Work	Worcestershire	St. Helens
Edy Jervis	Child		5	Scholar	Worcestershire	Littleborough
Albert Jervis	Child		4	Scholar	Cheshire	Hyde
Edward Jervis	Child		3
Muriel Jervis	Child		1

Thomas's birthplace – 'Whore' – and age – 37 – are a good match to the baptism in December 1843 to Henry and Anne.

The 1871 census, taken around 7 months prior to his wedding shows Tom Jervis was working in Worcester:

So far it has not been possible to trace Albert and Maggie Jervis in the 1911 census or later records.

Conclusions

It has been possible to piece together the details of Henry's eventful life with reasonable confidence, also that of his wife and children and some of his grandchildren.

Appendices

More about Mucklestone (From History, Gazetteer and Directory of Staffordshire, William White, Sheffield, 1851):

Mucklestone, or Mucclleston, is a small village on the side of a declivity, with a southern aspect, nine miles NW by W of Eccleshall, and four and a half miles NE of Market Drayton. Its parish is about six miles in length, and from one to two miles in breadth, extending along the borders of the counties of Salop and Stafford. Five of its townships, Aston, Knighton, Mucklestone, Oakley and Winnington being in Staffordshire and the other four, Bearston, Dorrington, Gravenhunger and Woore, in Shropshire. There are 879 inhabitants in Staffordshire and 809 in Salop, giving a total population of 1688, and the parish comprises 8120 acres, of which 4362 acres are in Staffordshire.<sup>11</sup>
